ANNOUNCING A NEW READER –

AFRICAN DIASPORA ARCHAEOLOGY

The Society for Historical Archaeology (SHA) is pleased to announce the publication of the first volume of a new reader series: Perspectives from Historical Archaeology.

African Diaspora Archaeology, compiled by Christopher Fennell, contains 23 articles from Historical Archaeology as well as Fennell's introduction to the archaeology of the Diaspora. Tracing the path of African peoples, cultures, and materials from Africa to the Caribbean and Central and South America, and into both southern and northern North America's, Fennell's compilation is a valuable contribution to African American archaeology. The volume contains regional overviews, topical reviews, site studies, material culture analyses, and theoretical perspectives from African Diaspora archaeology. The volume offers scholars in related disciplines a convenient source for archaeological work on the Diaspora; an excellent resource for students interested in African American archaeology; an affordable and comprehensive source for course adoption; and a convenient reference for archaeologists with an interest in the subject.

African Diaspora Archaeology is published through a Print on Demand (POD) bookstore that can be found at: <http://stores.lulu.com/shabookstore>. African Diaspora Archaeology is published at a price of $25 for print copy and $10 for PDF. Use of POD technology allows the SHA to produce a greater number and variety of readers, and the SHA's intent is to make this series affordable, comprehensive, and accessible.

The Series Editors are interested in hearing from compilers with an interest in developing readers on Urban Archaeology, Ethnicity, Gender, Landscapes, and Military Sites, as well as those with regional interests. Individuals interested in compiling a volume for publication through this series are encouraged to contact the editors:
